COMPETITION DOMAINS

The competition consists of five separate and independent domains. Each domain is evaluated and shortlisted independently.

Domain 1 — Computer Science & IT

CSE, IT, AI & ML, Data Science, Cybersecurity, Software Technology, Cloud Computing, and related fields.

Domain 2 — Electrical, Electronics & Instrumentation

EEE, ECE, E&I, Embedded Systems, IoT, Electronics, Communication, Control Systems, and related fields.

Domain 3 — Mechanical, Production & Mechatronics

Mechanical Engineering, Production Engineering, Mechatronics, Manufacturing, Robotics, Automation, Industrial Engineering, and related fields.

Domain 4 — Civil & Structural Engineering

Civil Engineering, Structural Engineering, Construction, Infrastructure, Transportation, Smart Cities, and related fields.

Domain 5 — Biotechnology & Biomedical Engineering

Biotechnology, Biomedical Engineering, Bioengineering, Medical Technology, Healthcare Technology, and related fields.

Domain Rules

- Each team must select one domain only, at the time of registration.
- The submitted paper must be relevant to the selected domain.
- All five domains are treated as separate competition categories.
- Evaluation and shortlisting are conducted independently within each domain.
